

South Africa Buffalo Safari

With Legendary Professional Hunter

MARK SULLIVAN

ONLY 10 HUNTS FOR 2017

Whatever animal you hunt, wherever in the world you hunt, around every campfire the name Mark Sullivan is sure to be spoken. Mark has written and published two remarkable books; "Death and Double Rifles" and "Fear No Death!" Both considered classics and beyond reproach. He has produced 14 documentary movies on hunting dangerous game. Mark has been a professional hunter in Tanzania, East Africa for the past 27 years, and still hunts there every year. His clientele list is second to none. So why is Mark hunting South Africa?

Because for many, the cost of hunting buffalo in Tanzania has become so expensive that Mark wants to share his hunting and his stories with as many people as he can before he retires. So now, for the first time, you can hunt Cape buffalo in South Africa with Mark as your Tanzanian PH* on your very own 1X1 safari at a fraction of the cost!

INCLUDED WITH EVERY HUNT!

1. Signed limited edition leather bound book "Death and Double Rifles!" A $300 value.
2. Two of Mark's DVDs. A $100 value.
3. Each client will be given the opportunity to shoot Mark's personal .577 Nitro Express double rifle. The one he uses on safari. One shot – one time! Value: A memory that will last your lifetime!
4. Signed autographed 8X10 photograph of your trophy with Mark, framed. Value: Priceless!

Now is the time to reserve your safari of a lifetime and hunt with the man himself. Make no mistake, hunting with Mark is an adventure of a lifetime. Not only will you have a great hunt but hanging around Mark is an experience you have to see to believe. He will keep you laughing and entertained from sunup to sunset. You will come away with a unique perspective as to the proper way to hunt dangerous game as told by a true living legend. Mark doesn't cut corners and will give 100% to this hunt just as he does for every hunt. Mark is branching out and is now guiding in Alaska for big brown bears and in Mexico for huge Mule deer bucks. Just how many more years Mark will hunt Africa is anyone's guess. All we can say is Mark has committed to us for this year and we're happy to have him. Sign up today...you'll be glad you did!
